The image shows three staves of musical notation, each divided into four measures. The notes and their labels are as follows:

- Staff 1: Four notes on a treble clef staff. The first measure has a note on the first line labeled "č. 1". The second measure has a note on the second line labeled "č. 4". The third measure has a note on the third space labeled "č. 5". The fourth measure has a note on the fourth space labeled "č. 8".
- Staff 2: Four notes on a treble clef staff. The first measure has a note on the second line labeled "m. 2". The second measure has a note on the second line with a flat sign labeled "♭m. 2". The third measure has a note on the third space with a sharp sign labeled "♯m. 3". The fourth measure has a note on the third space labeled "m. 3".
- Staff 3: Five notes on a treble clef staff. The first measure has a note on the second line with a sharp sign labeled "♯v. 2". The second measure has a note on the second line labeled "v. 2". The third measure has a note on the third space labeled "v. 3". The fourth measure has a note on the fourth space with a sharp sign labeled "♯v. 6". The fifth measure has a note on the fifth line labeled "v. 7".
